Notes to readers:

- Furnace oil is generally used for space heating and is exempt from federal fuel excise tax. It contains colourants to differentiate it from other similar types of fuel such as diesel.
 - Arctic stove oil is a type of furnace oil that contains colourants as well as anti-gel additives to prevent the oil from gelling at extreme cold temperatures (up to approximately -40°C).
- All prices are Canadian cents per litre, including all applicable taxes.
 - .. indicates this information was not available for the reporting period.
 - ... indicates not applicable, or this service was not available in this community at this time.

Comparing February 2025 to February 2024:

- Furnace oil prices decreased in all Yukon communities — the largest decrease (5.0%) occurred in 9 communities;
- Arctic stove oil prices decreased in all Yukon communities except Burwash Landing and Whitehorse — the largest percentage decrease was in Destruction Bay and Stewart Crossing (4.9%); and
- Propane (home heating) prices, where data were available, decreased in all Yukon communities except Whitehorse — the largest percentage decrease was in Carmacks (9.1%);
