

ARE YOU SAFE TO DRIVE?

KNOW THE RISKS

Do not drive or operate motor vehicles while on opioids.

Opioids can be dangerous if taken with alcohol or certain medications.

Do not drive or operate motor vehicles while on opioids.

KNOW THE MEDICATIONS THAT IMPAIR.
TALK WITH YOUR PHARMACIST OR DOCTOR.

Opioid pain relievers

Common opioid narcotic pain medications include:

- hydromorphone (such as Dilaudid®)
- morphine (such as Kadian®, M-Eslon®, MS-Contin®, Statex®)

- codeine (such as Tylenol No. 3®)
- oxycodone (such as OxyNeo®, Percocet®)
- tramadol (such as Ralivia®, Tridural®, Zytram®)

Common side effects:

- trouble staying focused
- drowsiness
- brain “fog”
- slow reflexes

For more information, please visit our website:
Yukon.ca/know-the-medications-that-impair

