Applicant responsibilities

By submitting this form, I am asking the Child Support Administrative Recalculation Service to recalculate the court order or agreement on child support that I have submitted with this application.

By making this application to recalculate the current level of child support payable, I understand that I must:

- provide copies of relevant court order(s), variation order(s) and other relevant notifications.
- inform the Child Support Administrative Recalculation Service if any of the information provided changes, including the contact details of involved parties.
- if I am the applicant and payor of child support, show proof of income by providing a copy of the most recent notice of assessment and/or notice of re-assessment from the Canada Revenue Agency.

Applying for recalculation

Submit this application form and required supporting documents (e.g., copies of court orders, copies of recalculation(s) identified in section 4 and proof of income) to Yukon Family Law Information Centre (address below).
