

Creative and Cultural Career Advancement Fund - List of recipients

#	Recipient name	Project description	Discipline	Amount
2026 intake
1	Jeremy Parkin	The musician plans to release six to eight singles over the course of a year, seek mentorship to improve songwriting and piano skills, and develop multiple income streams through merchandise releases, tour bookings, streaming royalties, commissions, licensing deals, and brand partnerships.	Music-Performing arts	$ 50,000.00
2	Katherine McCallum	Over the next year, her goal is to become a stronger and more nationally connected producer of Yukon-created theatre, with a focus on touring new northern works across Canada. She will also work with dramaturgs to strengthen her story development skills.	Theatre-Performing arts	$ 50,000.00
2026 TOTAL				$ 100,000.00

#	Recipient name	Project description	Discipline	Amount
2025 intake
1	Jasmine Netsena	To complete and record her second album, build touring opportunities across Canada and Europe, solidify an online presence, and learn about the recording process.	Music-Performing arts	$ 50,000.00
2	Eva Holland	To launch a small, independent publishing house focusing on Yukon-made books, and its first title, a Yukon River anthology.	Literature	$ 50,000.00
3	Tobias Moisey	To produce and conduct a sustainable concert series in Whitehorse featuring a mixed chamber ensemble, develop practical skills in concert conducting, production, budgeting, and audience development.	Music-Performing arts	$ 50,000.00
2025 TOTAL				$ 150,000.00

Creative and Cultural Career Advancement Fund - List of recipients

#	Recipient name	Project description	Discipline	Amount
	2024 intake
1	Lorraine M. Wolfe	To advance skills as a carver and create a solid foundation to be able to support herself financially as a full-time artist.	Visual arts - Traditional Carving	$ 50,000.00
2	Jordy Walker	To focus work on three distinct areas: solo work, album production, and film scoring.	Music-Performing arts	$ 50,000.00
3	Rebekah Miller	To develop a new body of work for an exhibition, market and sell art work.	Visual arts - drawing, sculpture, print-making and photography	$ 50,000.00
		2024 TOTAL		$ 150,000.00

Creative and Cultural Career Advancement Fund - List of recipients

#	Recipient name	Project description	Discipline	Amount
	2023 intake
1	Calvin Morberg	To refine metalwork skills through creation and mentorship with master artists, and contribute to the reviving and reclaiming of traditional Tlingit art forms	Visual arts - multidisciplinary	$ 50,000.00
2	Michaëla St-Pierre	To advance creative dance practice, develop production skills, and work to foster contemporary dance community in the Yukon	Performing arts - dance	$ 50,000.00
3	Edward (Tedd) Tucker	To develop industry-specific business skills and promotional tools, and create a portfolio of self-directed illustration projects	Visual arts - illustration	$ 50,000.00
		2023 TOTAL		$ 150,000.00

The Creative & Cultural Career Advancement Fund currently has an annual budget of $100,000. The program's annual intake is May 15.

For more information, contact the arts advisor:

Phone: 867-667-8789 or Email: arts.fund@yukon.ca

