FONDS DESCRIPTION

ALBERT CHARLES BARNES FONDS. – [194-].

Physical description

173 photographs.

30 postcards.

Biographical sketch

Albert Charles Barnes was born on February 12, 1916 in Edmonton, Alberta. He attended the Gregg College in Chicago, Illinois from 1936 to 1937, and won the Gregg Diamond Medal in the world-wide Gregg competition for speed and accuracy in shorthand in 1937. He was a stenographer for many years, reporting the proceedings of various conventions and all sessions of the Alberta Legislature for three years. From 1940 to 1944, Barnes was on the members' stenographers staff of the House of Commons in Ottawa.

Between 1944 and 1946, Barnes acted as Sheriff of the Yukon Territory, and Official Court Reporter and Registrar of the Yukon Territorial Court. When the man whom he was replacing officially retired in 1946, Barnes took over the part-time positions. In August 1948, Barnes was accepted into the Territorial Court as an articled law clerk. During his time in the Yukon, Barnes also worked for the Department of Mines and Resources. By 1951, he had moved to Vancouver where he became the Offices of Vancouver Court Reporter. He was also a member of the National Shorthand Reporters Association and Ottawa Civil Service Association.

Custodial history

The fonds was donated to the Legal Archives of British Columbia by Mrs. F. B. Flach, sister of A. C. Barnes. The L.A.B.C. offered the Yukon-related portion of the fonds to the Yukon Archives.

Scope and content

The fonds primarily consists of black and white photographs taken along the Alaska Highway, and in Dawson City and Whitehorse. Many reflect scenes from the Alaska Highway during the mid to late 1940s, including photographs of buildings, planes, vehicles and people. There are also photographs of parades, a gathering of the Yukon Order of Pioneers in Dawson City, a Governor-General's visit to Dawson City, a giant northern mosquito, several people, including Barnes himself, and Barnes' home and office in Dawson. All of these photographs were probably taken between 1944 and 1950. There are also 30 postcards, one of which Barnes sent to his mother.

SERIES DESCRIPTIONS

SERIES I. POSTCARDS. – [194-].

Physical description

30 postcards : b&w, 1 hand-tinted ; 8.5 x 14 cm.

Scope and content

This series consists of postcards with photographs of a variety of scenes of the Yukon and northern B.C. The postcards depict scenes of the Alaska Highway and Whitehorse, including the Northcraft Indian Craft Shop and the Regina Hotel. There are several of the "Northern" or "Yukon Mosquito" which is a large toy mosquito shown attacking a man. All of the cards are blank on the verso with the exception of one (PHO 44, #23) that Mr. Barnes sent to his mother in January 1947. The postcards were probably taken during the mid-1940s. Only PHO 44, #1 has the original date. Most of the captions below were taken directly from the postcards.

Source of supplied title proper

Title based on the content of the series.

Signature and inscriptions

PHO 44, # 23 was sent by Barnes to his mother with a brief handwritten note on verso.

APPENDIX A: ARCHIVAL SELECTION CRITERIA

Due to the content of the donated photographs, the Yukon Archives did not retain all items. Of the 255 photographs received, 176 have been kept.

The Yukon Archives retained the photographs based on content. This material reflects life in the territory, for example, modes of transportation, people and buildings. Many of the identified scenic shots are also valuable, whereas scenes that were either not of the Yukon or did not contain significant information about the Yukon have not been retained.
