

SART AGENCIES at a glance

Social supports

Sexualized Assault Support (SAS) Line

- 24/7 support line
- 1-844-967-7275

Provide support and information for victims of sexualized assault and linking victims to other services available through SART.

Victim Services

- 867-667-8500

Accompaniment to hospital and RCMP, Third Party Reporting, safety plan, crisis support, emergency funds and cellphone program, court updates and referrals.

Women's Transition Home

- 867-668-5733

Shelter, transportation, support, advocacy and Third Party Reporting.

Mental Wellness and Substance Use Services

- 867-456-3838

Priority access to counselling within 72 hours of a referral being made for child, youth and adult victims of sexualized assault.

Medical

Whitehorse General Hospital

- 867-393-8700

24/7 SART examiner on call, private spaces, Sexualized Assault Examination Kit and "Kit on Ice", emergency medical care, STI testing, pregnancy prevention and more.

First Nations Health Program

- 867-393-8710

Culturally responsive supports, referrals and advocacy.

Legal

RCMP

- 911
- 867-667-5555 (non-urgent)

Investigation, Specialized Response Unit (SRU) that works with RCMP members for investigations and may provide immediate response.

Public Prosecution Service of Canada (PPSC)

- 867-667-8100

Prosecutions, testimonial aid and witness support.

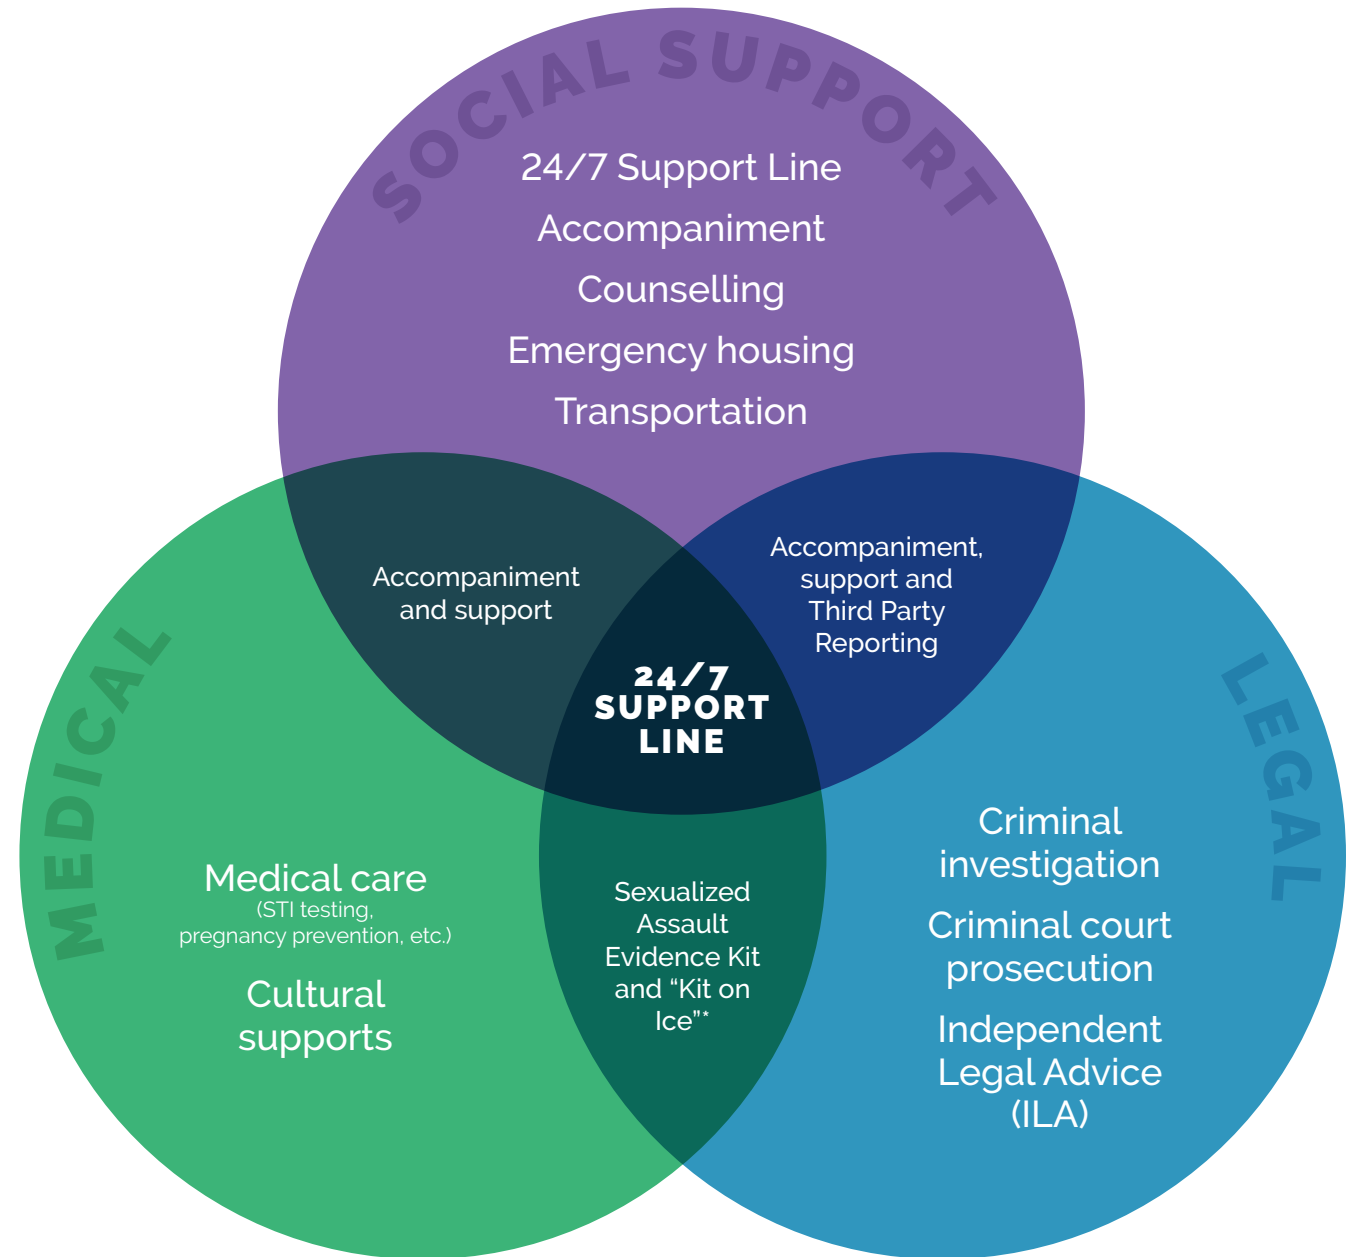

Third Party Reporting

Available through Women's Transition Home or Victim Services.

Independent Legal Advice

- 867-667-8500

Up to 4 hours of free legal advice for victims of sexualized or intimate partner violence.

*Kit on Ice is a Sexualized Assault Evidence Kit that is collected and confidentially stored for 12 months. Available only when there is no Duty to Report the circumstances of the assault and RCMP have not opened an investigation.