Emergency status: A state of emergency was declared on March 27, 2020.

Health care

- Yukoners living in rural communities can now book their vaccination appointment on www.Yukon.ca/this-is-our-shot or by calling 1-877-374-0425, including residents of Burwash Landing, Destruction Bay, Carmacks, Dawson City, Faro, Haines Junction, Mayo, Stewart Crossing, Keno, Pelly Crossing and Ross River.
- Whitehorse residents (including residents of Ibex Valley, Mendenhall, Marsh Lake and Mount Lorne) who are 60 or older can now book their vaccination appointment for the week of February 1.
- Proof of residency will be required to receive a vaccination, such as government issued identification, a Yukon health care card, or mail displaying your name and address. After receiving a vaccine Yukoners must continue following health measures, such as wearing a mask.
- The Whitehorse COVID-19 screening drive-thru has closed.
- Yukon's vaccine rollout schedule can be found here: https://yukon.ca/sites/yukon.ca/files/hss/hss-imgs/yukons_vaccine_rollout_-_timeline_final.pdf
- Yukoners are reminded to stay home and get tested if they have symptoms, however mild. Testing hours are 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Sunday at the COVID-19 Testing and Assessment Centre.
- It is mandatory to wear a non-medical mask in all indoor public spaces.
- All children aged 5 and over have to wear a mask on a school bus: <https://yukon.ca/en/news/additional-school-buses-new-routes-starting-january>
- To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.

Travel and borders

- Canada and the US have continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until February 21, 2021.
- If you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you may be subject to a 14-day federal quarantine.
- Everyone entering Yukon is required to self-isolate for 14 days. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser, Good Hope Lake and Pleasant Camp. Critical service workers must fully self-isolate except for when they are performing their duties.
