

Electrical Bulletin

INFORMATION FOR CONTRACTORS

October 5, 2016

Temporary Services

As of April 1st 2017, non-weather proof equipment will no longer be accepted for temporary services even if it is installed in wooden box. We have come across too many temporary services with the wood box cover wide open and/or completely removed leaving the electrical equipment exposed to the weather. The only way to rectify the situation is to eliminate the use of non-weather proof equipment outdoors.

Hector Lang

Chief Electrical Inspector