

This form must be submitted with the charitable gaming licence application and approved BEFORE gaming proceeds are spent.

Gaming proceeds can be used for travel to events related to the group’s program. Approved expenditures include reasonable costs for direct transportation and lodgings during the event. Travel that is social, recreational or administrative in nature is not eligible.

You must attach the following to this request:

- list of names, ages, and positions held for all individuals whose expenses you intend to pay with gaming proceeds
- detailed travel schedule indicating which expenses you intend to pay with gaming proceeds

Athletic groups:

The trip must be either a normal part of the group’s activities, or an earned opportunity to advance to a higher competitive level.

The travel must be required for the group to deliver its programs in the Yukon. For travel outside of Canada, a similar program must not exist in Canada.
