

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT FUND PROGRAM

GUIDELINES AND APPLICATION

The Community Development Fund (CDF) supports projects, events and initiatives that provide long-term, sustainable economic and social benefits to Yukon communities by funding projects that:

- generate local spending;
- create employment opportunities;
- build needed infrastructure;
- bring new money into Yukon;
- develop skills, knowledge and experience;
- facilitate community involvement; and
- build partnerships.

A maximum of 90% of total eligible project expenses is provided through three funding tiers. Program funding is competitive. The number of eligible applications may exceed available funds.

FUNDING TIERS	Tier 1	Tier 2	Tier 3
Funding level	$20,000 or less	$20,001 to $75,000	Over $75,000
Deadline(s)	January 15 May 15 July 15 October 15	April 15 September 15	January 15
Application processing times	4 weeks	8 weeks	12 weeks

Eligibility

Eligible applicants are Yukon-based and include:

- registered non-profit societies;
- not-for-profit corporations incorporated under the Canada Not-for-Profit Corporations Act;
- charitable organizations;
- municipal and First Nations governments; and
- First Nation development corporations engaging in community-level initiatives.

Eligible projects and activities include:

- new construction projects (for example: parks, playgrounds, buildings, structural improvements, recreational facilities, community gardens);
- renovations, restorations and other physical improvements to buildings or lands (for example: facility improvements, new technology, large equipment purchases);
- knowledge or skills development (for example: training courses, pilot projects or workshops);
- research and planning (for example: historical research, feasibility studies, strategic planning, community planning, exhibits, publications, videos, marketing and promotion);
- programs and events (for example: conferences, festivals, demonstration or pilot wellness programs); and
- capital portion of expenditures for art-based projects (for example: stage construction, equipment, advertising and marketing).

Ineligible applicants, projects and costs include:

- local advisory councils, private businesses, individuals, or the Governments of Canada and Yukon;
- land development;
- improvements to buildings owned by private citizens or businesses (improvements to Government of Yukon buildings are eligible if a long-term lease agreement of five years or more is in place);
- road projects;
- projects that fall under the normal responsibility of the Government of Yukon, a municipal authority, First Nation or federal government;
- operations and maintenance costs or on-going expenses (for example: leasehold improvements where the improvements are the responsibility of the leaseholder, existing employee positions, rent, telephone, internet, annual or recurring events);
- projects that compete with a local private sector business unless a circumstance shows a defensible greater economic benefit to the community or territory (for example: daycares, golf courses, tent rentals);
- projects whose primary objective is creating, producing or presenting art; and
- expenditures made prior to the project being approved for funding.

Application instructions

Read this document carefully for details about the program's purpose, the eligibility of your organization and your project, and how to apply.

Contact a CDF advisor to discuss your project. CDF advisors are available year-round to provide advice and guidance about the program and to review draft applications well before a deadline.

Prepare your application with all pages on 8½ x 11 single-sided. Do not use staples. Download and save this document to enter information for your application. Additional pages can be attached if required.

Complete the application checklist (page three) and include it with your application.

Submit your application. Applications must be received by the CDF office no later than 4:30 p.m. on the day of the deadline. If a deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, applications must be received no later than 4:30 p.m. on the first business day following the deadline. Late applications will not be considered for funding.
