

December 3, 2020 at 3:30 p.m.

This information is subject to change without notice. Changes from the last update are highlighted. Public update for the week of December 3, 2020.

| <ul> <li>self-isolation rules: https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19-information/your-health-covid-19/information-self-isolation</li> <li>To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.</li> <li>Travel and borders         <ul> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp.</li> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Businesses and financial relief         <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines</li> </ul>  | Yukonnumbers  | Confirmed cases:51   | Recovered: 39                               | Negative tests:5,326        | Pending results:111        | Total tested:5,488 | Deaths:1           |  |
|--|---|--|---|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|-------------------------------------|------------------------|--|
| <ul> <li>There is a new potential COVID-19 exposure notice. If you were in the exposure locations and have symptom we ask that you get tested: https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-weilness/covid-19-information/your-health-covid-19/potential-covid-19-exposure-notices</li> <li>Drive-thru screening has been extended until further notice at 91628 Alaska Highway (the old Centennial Motors wash bay) in Whitehorse</li> <li>With uptake for flu vaccine slowing, the mass clinic at the Whitehorse Convention Centre will reduce operating hours beginning this Friday, December 4.</li> <li>Please follow posted health and safety guidelines at all times when in restaurants and other locations. Gener guidelines include a maximum of six people seated together at the same table, maintaining two-metre distancing between tables and staying home if you feel sick.</li> <li>As of December 1, it is mandatory to wear a non-medical mask in all indoor public spaces.</li> <li>If you are planning to have guests from outside of Yukon during the holidays, you must be aware of the new self-isolation rules: https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19-information/your-health-covid-19/information-self-isolation</li> <li>To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.</li> <li>Travel and borders</li> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp.</li> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at</li></ul>  | Emergency status: a state of emergency was declared on March 27, 2020. It was extended. |  |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>we ask that you get tested: https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19-information/your-health-covid-19/potential-covid-19-exposure-notices</li> <li>Drive-thru screening has been extended until further notice at 91628 Alaska Highway (the old Centennial Motors wash bay) in Whitehorse</li> <li>With uptake for flu vaccine slowing, the mass clinic at the Whitehorse Convention Centre will reduce operating hours beginning this Friday, December 4.</li> <li>Please follow posted health and safety guidelines at all times when in restaurants and other locations. Gener guidelines include a maximum of six people seated together at the same table, maintaining two-metre distancing between tables and staying home if you feel sick.</li> <li>As of December 1, it is mandatory to wear a non-medical mask in all indoor public spaces.</li> <li>If you are planning to have guests from outside of Yukon during the holidays, you must be aware of the new self-isolation rules: https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19-information/your-health-covid-19/information-self-isolation</li> <li>To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.</li> </ul> Travel and borders <ul> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp. <ul> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> <li>Businesses and financial relief</li> <li>Learn more</li></ul></li></ul>   | Health care   |  |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>With uptake for flu vaccine slowing, the mass clinic at the Whitehorse Convention Centre will reduce operating hours beginning this Friday, December 4.</li> <li>Please follow posted health and safety guidelines at all times when in restaurants and other locations. Gener guidelines include a maximum of six people seated together at the same table, maintaining two-metre distancing between tables and staying home if you feel sick.</li> <li>As of December 1, it is mandatory to wear a non-medical mask in all indoor public spaces.</li> <li>If you are planning to have guests from outside of Yukon during the holidays, you must be aware of the new self-isolation rules: https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19-information/your-health-covid-19/information-self-isolation</li> <li>To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.</li> </ul> Travel and borders <ul> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp. <ul> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> </ul> Businesses and financial relief <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> </ul> Enforcement and other guidelines <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce</li></ul></li></ul>   | weco  | e ask that you get tevid-19/potential-cov  | sted: https://yul/id-19-exposure | kon.ca/en/health-notices    | -and-wellness/covi             | d-19-information/y                  | our-health-     |  |
| <ul> <li>operating hours beginning this Friday, December 4.</li> <li>Please follow posted health and safety guidelines at all times when in restaurants and other locations. Generguidelines include a maximum of six people seated together at the same table, maintaining two-metredistancing between tables and staying home if you feel sick.</li> <li>As of December 1, it is mandatory to wear a non-medical mask in all indoor public spaces.</li> <li>If you are planning to have guests from outside of Yukon during the holidays, you must be aware of the newself-isolation rules: https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19-information/your-health-covid-19/information-self-isolation</li> <li>To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.</li> </ul> Travel and borders <ul> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of BritishColumbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have leftthe territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side,Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp. <ul> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek,you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure. </li> </ul> Businesses and financial relief <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by goingto https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> </ul> Enforcement and other guidelines <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement fortwo-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks manda</li></ul></li></ul> |   |  |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>Please follow posted health and safety guidelines at all times when in restaurants and other locations. Gener guidelines include a maximum of six people seated together at the same table, maintaining two-metre distancing between tables and staying home if you feel sick.</li> <li>As of December 1, it is mandatory to wear a non-medical mask in all indoor public spaces.</li> <li>If you are planning to have guests from outside of Yukon during the holidays, you must be aware of the new self-isolation rules: https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19-information/your-health-covid-19/information-self-isolation</li> <li>To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.</li> </ul> Travel and borders <ul> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp. <ul> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> </ul> Businesses and financial relief <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> </ul> Enforcement and other guidelines <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul></li></ul>   |   |  |   |                                 | he Whitehorse Con | vention Centre will                 | reduce                 |  |
| <ul> <li>guidelines include a maximum of six people seated together at the same table, maintaining two-metre distancing between tables and staying home if you feel sick.</li> <li>As of December 1, it is mandatory to wear a non-medical mask in all indoor public spaces.</li> <li>If you are planning to have guests from outside of Yukon during the holidays, you must be aware of the new self-isolation rules: https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19-information/your-health-covid-19/information-self-isolation</li> <li>To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.</li> <li>Travel and borders</li> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp.</li> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> <li>Businesses and financial relief</li> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines</li> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul>   |   |  |   |                                 | times when in resta            | aurants and other I                 | ocations. Genera       |  |
| <ul> <li>As of December 1, it is mandatory to wear a non-medical mask in all indoor public spaces.</li> <li>If you are planning to have guests from outside of Yukon during the holidays, you must be aware of the new self-isolation rules: https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19-information/your-health-covid-19/information-self-isolation</li> <li>To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.</li> </ul> Travel and borders <ul> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp. <ul> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> </ul> Businesses and financial relief <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> </ul> Enforcement and other guidelines <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul></li></ul>  |   |  |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>If you are planning to have guests from outside of Yukon during the holidays, you must be aware of the new self-isolation rules: https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19-information/your-health-covid-19/information-self-isolation</li> <li>To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.</li> </ul> Travel and borders <ul> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp. <ul> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> </ul> Businesses and financial relief <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> </ul> Enforcement and other guidelines <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul></li></ul>  | dis   | distancing between tables and staying home if you feel sick.   |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>self-isolation rules: https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19-information/your-health-covid-19/information-self-isolation</li> <li>To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.</li> <li>Travel and borders         <ul> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp.</li> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Businesses and financial relief         <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines         <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul></li></ul>   | • As  | As of December 1, it is mandatory to wear a non-medical mask in all indoor public spaces.                      |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>19/information-self-isolation</li> <li>To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.</li> <li>Travel and borders <ul> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp.</li> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Businesses and financial relief <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>  | ● If y  | If you are planning to have guests from outside of Yukon during the holidays, you must be aware of the new     |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>To help Yukoners at risk during this pandemic, people can access mental health and social supports online.</li> <li>Travel and borders         <ul> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp.</li> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Businesses and financial relief         <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines</li> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul></li></ul>   |   | self-isolation rules: https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19-information/your-health-covid-   |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>Travel and borders <ul> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp.</li> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Businesses and financial relief <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>   |   |  |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>Everyone entering Yukon will be required to self-isolate for 14 days. This includes residents of British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp.</li> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> <li>Businesses and financial relief         <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines         <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>   |   |  | sk during this pa                           | ndemic, people c                | an access mental h      | ealth and social su                 | pports online . |  |
| <ul> <li>Columbia, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut. Exceptions include critical services workers that have left the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp.</li> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> <li>Businesses and financial relief         <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines</li> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul> </li></ul>   |   |  |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, Jade City, Fraser and Pleasant Camp.</li> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> <li>Businesses and financial relief <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>   |   |  |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>Canada and the US has continued to extend the border closures to non-essential travel until December 21.</li> <li>Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek, you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> <li>Businesses and financial relief         <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines         <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul> </li> </ul></li></ul>  | the   | the territory to perform their work duties and residents of border areas such as Atlin, Lower Post, Fire Side, |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> <li>Businesses and financial relief         <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines         <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul> </li> </ul></li></ul>   |   |  |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>you must be aware of the federal rules for re-entering Canada at the time of your departure.</li> <li>Businesses and financial relief         <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines         <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul> </li> </ul></li></ul>   | ● Yu  | Yukoners are reminded that if you choose to go past the Canadian border station at Fraser or Beaver Creek,     |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>Learn more about a variety of supports available to help Yukoners during the pandemic by going to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines         <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>  |   |  | •   | • •                             |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>to https://yukon.ca/en/economic-and-social-supports-covid-19.</li> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines         <ul> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>  | Businesses  | and financial relief   | -   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| <ul> <li>Enforcement and other guidelines</li> <li>The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.</li> </ul>  | • Le  | arn more about a va  | riety of support                            | s available to hel | o Yukoners during t            | he pandemic by go                   | oing                   |  |
| • The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.  | to to   | https://yukon.ca/er  | n/economic-and                 | -social-supports-               | covid-19 .        |                                     |                        |  |
| • The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for two-metre distancing between students in the classroom and to make masks mandatory in common areas outside of the classroom.  | Enforceme   | ent and other guidel   | ines  |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| outside of the classroom.  | • Th  | The school health and safety guidelines for Grades K to 12 have been updated to reduce the requirement for     |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
|  |   |  |   |                                 |                                |                                     |                        |  |
| concerns at https://yukon.ca/en/cema-report.   | • Be  | kind and understan   | ding. People in t                           | -                               | e territory are now            | driving in winter o                 | onditions. Repo        |  |