Emergency status: a state of emergency was declared on March 27, 2020.

Health care

- A respiratory assessment centre is open in Whitehorse to support people with acute respiratory illness who need medical assessment. Yukoners will be referred to the centre from 811, a family physician, Yukon Communicable Disease Control or a hospital emergency department.
- Yukon hospitals have suspended all non-urgent or routine services. Hospitals will continue to provide urgent emergency care. No visitors are allowed at Yukon hospitals, with few exceptions.
- Testing criteria has been expanded to include a wider range of symptoms. Those who have not travelled can now get tested. Learn more here: <https://yukon.ca/en/news/april-28-2020-yukons-chief-medical-officer-health-provides-update-covid-19>

Travel and borders

- As of April 20, Transport Canada requires air passengers must wear non-medical masks.
- Anyone entering Yukon must check in with an Enforcement or CBSA Officer and provide their destination, contact information, and declaration. Those entering Yukon must self-isolate for 14 days.
- The Canada-U.S. border is closed to non-essential travel.
- People in Atlin, Lower Post, Fraser, Jade City, Fireside or Pleasant Camp are exempt from the 14-day self-isolation period, if they have not traveled outside of Yukon or their home community in the past 14 days.
- Workers entering Yukon, including miners, must self-isolate for 14 days: <https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19/guidelines-work-camps-during-covid-19>

Businesses and financial relief

- The Government of Canada has announced $9 billion in financial aid for post-secondary students. Students will be eligible for $1,250 a month from May through August.
- The Governments of Yukon and Canada have taken steps to support local workers and businesses. Visit Yukon.ca/Work to learn more about these measures.
- The Government of Yukon extended the property tax payment deadline to September 2. Learn more: <https://yukon.ca/en/news/property-tax-payment-deadline-extended-september-2>
- Applications for Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy are open at www.canada.ca
- Some Yukon businesses have begun to reopen on their own initiative after changing their practices to comply with current public health advice. Retail operations may remain open as long as they have a plan in place to serve the public safely. Other establishments, such as bars, restaurants except for take out and delivery, recreation facilities and businesses offering personal services, remain closed under public health order.
- The ban on gatherings of more than 10 people refers to social gatherings rather than work environments.

Enforcement
