Emergency status: a state of emergency was declared on March 27, 2020.

Health care

- Licensed child care spaces in Yukon are limited to critical and essential workers and vulnerable families.
- A respiratory assessment centre is open in Whitehorse to support people with acute respiratory illness who need medical assessment. Yukoners will be referred to the centre from 811, a family physician, Yukon Communicable Disease Control or a hospital emergency department.
- Yukon hospitals have suspended all non-urgent or routine services. Hospitals will continue to provide urgent emergency care. No visitors are allowed at Yukon hospitals, with few exceptions.
- Testing criteria has been expanded to include a wider range of symptoms. Learn more here: <https://yukon.ca/en/news/april-24-2020-yukons-chief-medical-officer-health-provides-update-covid-19>

Travel and borders

- As of April 20, Transport Canada requires air passengers must wear non-medical masks.
- Anyone entering Yukon must check in with an Enforcement or CBSA Officer and provide their destination, contact information, and declaration. Those entering Yukon must self-isolate for 14 days.
- The Canada-U.S. border is closed to non-essential travel.
- People in Atlin, Lower Post, Fraser, Jade City, Fireside or Pleasant Camp are exempt from the 14-day self-isolation period, if they have not traveled outside of Yukon or their home community in the past 14 days.
- Avoid non-essential travel to Yukon's rural communities. Residents of rural Yukon communities are advised to limit their visits to Whitehorse if possible.
- Workers entering Yukon, including miners, must self-isolate for 14 days: <https://yukon.ca/en/health-and-wellness/covid-19/guidelines-work-camps-during-covid-19>

Businesses and financial relief

- The Government of Canada has announced $9 billion in financial aid for post-secondary students. Students will be eligible for $1,250 a month from May through August.
- The Governments of Yukon and Canada have taken steps to support local workers and businesses. Visit Yukon.ca/Work to learn more about these measures.
- The Government of Yukon extended the property tax payment deadline to September 2. Learn more: <https://yukon.ca/en/news/property-tax-payment-deadline-extended-september-2>
