The certificate is valid for 21 days.

Information for the patient

You have the right at any time to apply to the Capability and Consent Board for a review of Form 7 (Certificate of Involuntary Admission) or Form 11 (Certificate of Renewal of Involuntary Admission), or any other certificate issued under the Mental Health Act.

If you want to apply for a review, send Form 9 (Application to the Capability and Consent Board) to the Capability and Consent Board.

Note that an automatic hearing will occur to review all certificates of involuntary admission and certificates of renewal. You can choose to waive this right to a hearing if you are capable of understanding. Fill out Form 8 (Waiver of Right to an Automatic Hearing) with your lawyer and send it to the Capability and Consent Board if you want to waive your right to a hearing.

If you waive your right to an automatic hearing, the Capability and Consent Board will conduct a paper review of your involuntary admission to determine whether the provisions of the Mental Health Act were followed, whether adequate information was considered, and whether the physicians acted properly in coming to the decision to issue a certificate of involuntary admission.
