

Arctic Brotherhood Hall

Municipal Historic Site

Dawson City, Yukon

The Arctic Brotherhood Hall was built in 1901 by the members of Arctic Brotherhood, a social and charitable organization of northern men. Today, it houses Diamond Tooth Gerties Gambling Hall.

For more information on historic places in Yukon visit the Yukon Register of Historic Places at:

<http://register.yukonhistoricplaces.ca/>

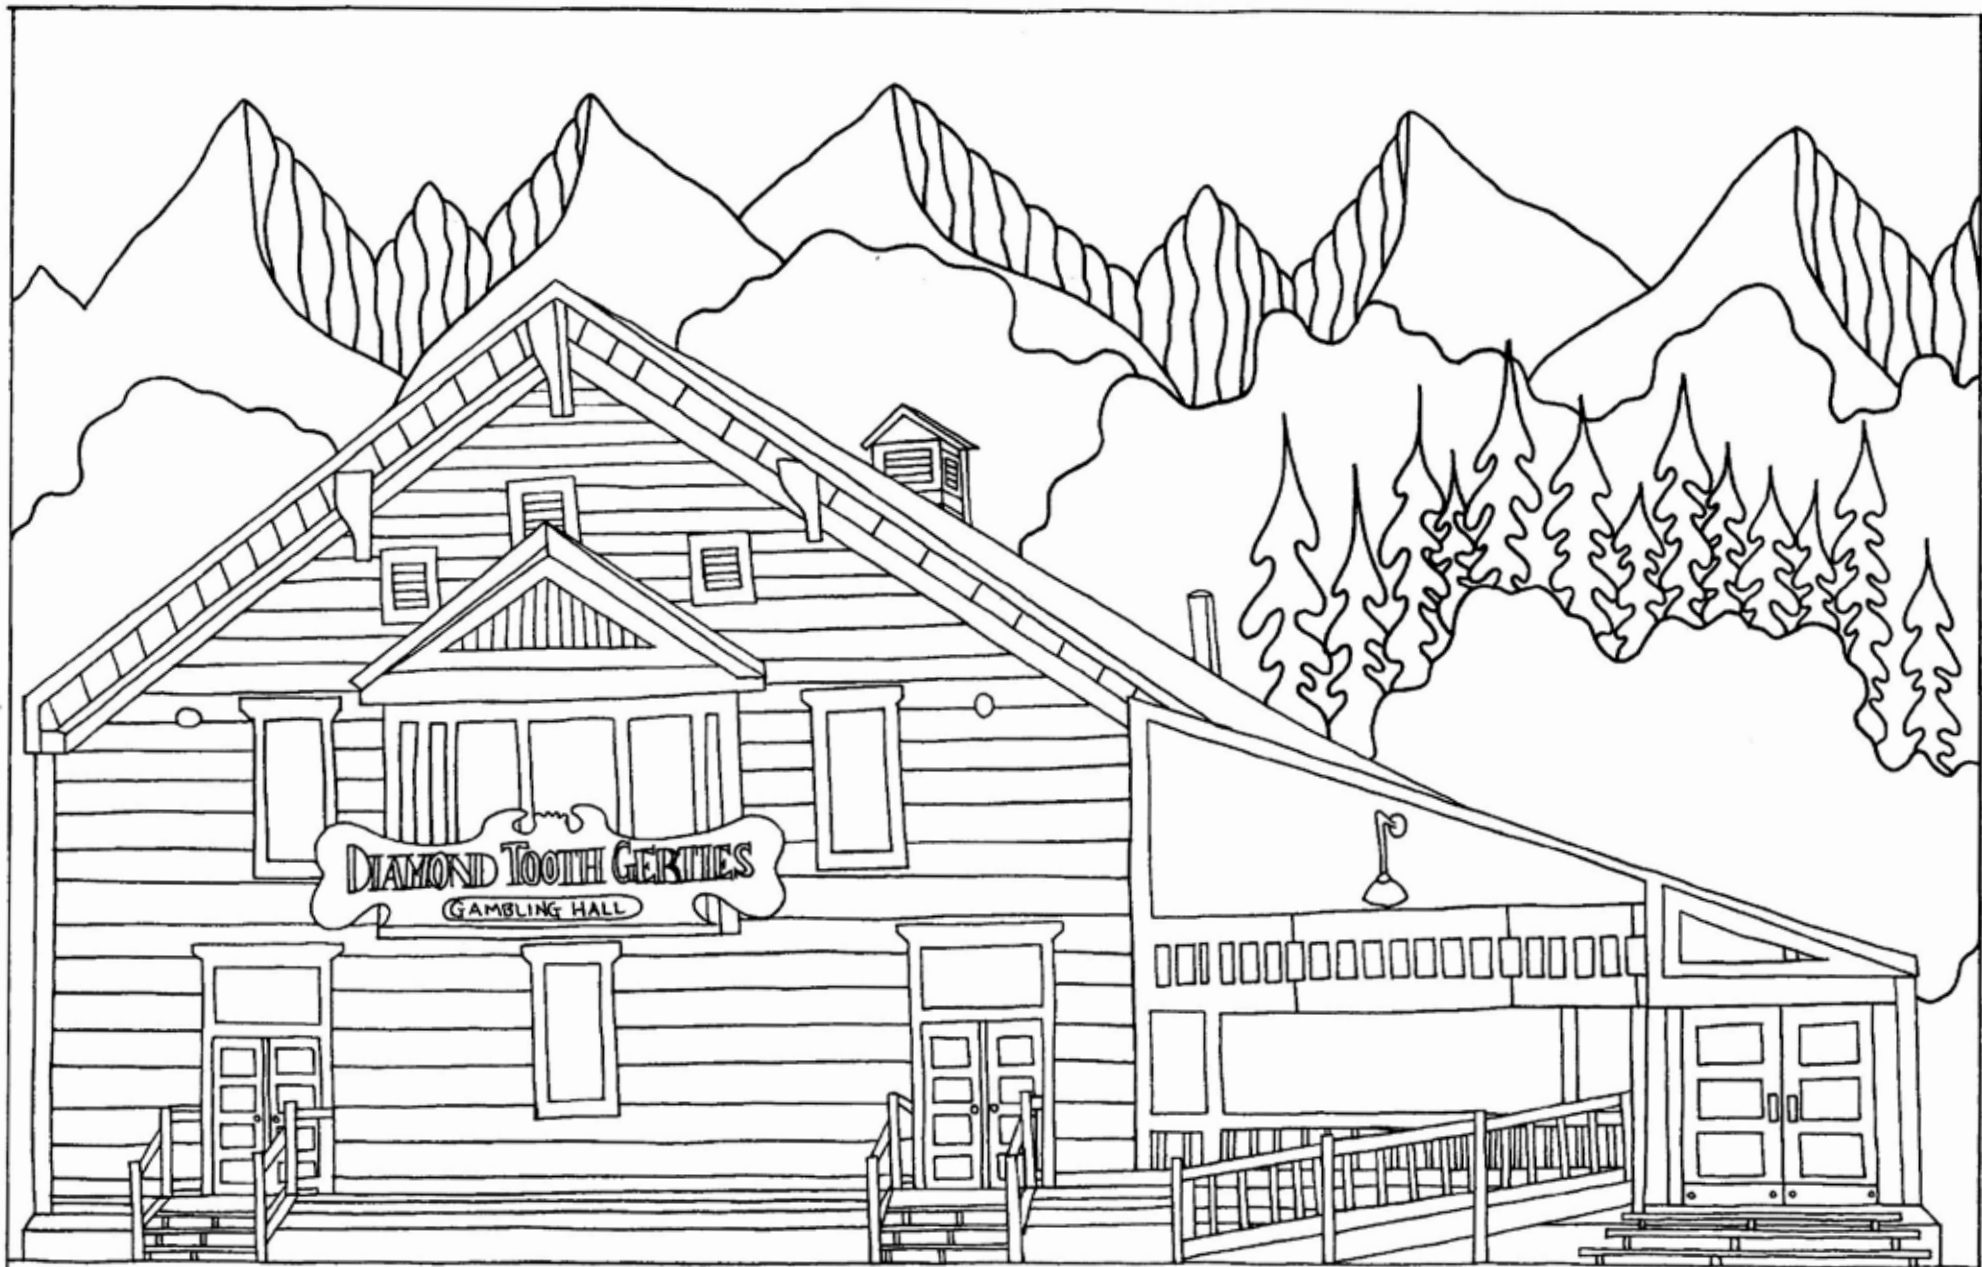

Yukon Archives. Vancouver Public Library Collection #2013.

On the back, you will find an illustration of the Arctic Brotherhood Hall (Diamond Tooth Gerties) by artist Erin Dixon. Add some colour by either sticking with the building's actual green and white or inventing your own palette!

Erin Dixon creates colourful paintings of familiar Yukon places. She is the author of a colouring book "Colouring the Yukon" and is at work illustrating a second volume featuring unique Whitehorse homes.

◆ ARCTIC BROTHERHOOD HALL ◆