Yukon Bureau of Statistics

Inter-jurisdictional Employees 2018

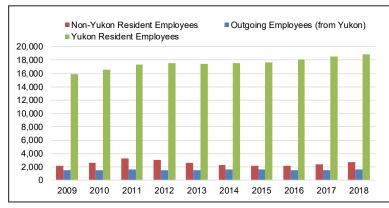

Highlights:

- In 2018, a total of 2,710 non-Yukon residents received $92.7 million in employment income from Yukon.
- Yukon's Construction industry employed the highest number of non-Yukon residents at 490 in 2018.

About inter-jurisdictional employees

- Inter-jurisdictional employees are individuals who maintained a permanent residence in one province or territory during the year as indicated on their T1 tax return, while reporting earnings from a different province or territory during the year as indicated on a T4 Statement of Remuneration. Incorporated self-employed individuals may be included, but only if they issue themselves a T4 slip.
- Only Canadian employees aged 18 or older who earned more than $1,000 (in 2016 constant dollars) are included.
- Inter-jurisdictional employees incoming (to Yukon) are individuals who received T4 earnings from Yukon but reported a different province or territory of residence on their T1 tax returns; inter-jurisdictional employees outgoing (from Yukon) are individuals who identified as residing in Yukon but received T4 earnings from other provinces/territories; and resident employees both resided in Yukon and received all T4 earnings from Yukon during the reference year.
- Estimates in this report are derived from the T1 and T4 tax files and exclude late and re-assessed taxfilers. Data for the 2018 tax year is the most recent available.
- Inter-jurisdictional employment may represent a significant source of income for home provinces or territories of inter-jurisdictional employees, and a significant source of labour for the provinces or territories in which they work.
- In 2018, a total of 2,710 non-Yukon residents received employment income from Yukon, while 1,590 Yukon residents received employment income from other provinces or territories. A total of 18,890 employees resided in Yukon and received all their employment income from Yukon.
- Non-Yukon residents received a total of $92.7 million in employment income from Yukon in 2018; Yukon residents received $40.2 million as part or all of their employment income from other provinces or territories; and Yukon employees who resided in Yukon received $1.1 billion as all their employment income.

Number of Inter-jurisdictional Employees, 2009 to 2018

- Over the 10-year period from 2009 to 2018, on average per year, 2,531 non-Yukon residents received employment income from Yukon as opposed to 1,545 Yukon residents who received employment income from other jurisdictions.
- Comparing the most recent five-year average (2014 to 2018) to the previous five-year average (2009 to 2013), non-Yukon residents receiving employment income from Yukon decreased by 413, or 15.1%, while Yukon residents receiving employment income from other provinces or territories increased by 28, or 1.8%.

Note: Due to the mobile nature of their work, inter-jurisdictional employees may be more likely to file annual personal income tax returns late. For example: in 2018, a forecasted 245 additional employees incoming to Yukon would have been included if late and re-assessed taxfilers were included; and an additional 180 outgoing employees from Yukon would have been included. Of interest, an estimated 1,335 Yukon resident employees were not included due to late filing. Estimates are subject to revision.

- In 2018, 2,710 employees, who worked in Yukon, reported residency elsewhere in Canada on their income tax return. Comparing 2018 to 2017, there was an increase of 350, or 14.8%, non-Yukon resident employees working in Yukon (2,360 employees).
- A total of 1,590 Yukon residents received all or a part of their employment earnings from outside of Yukon during 2018. Compared to 2017 (1,515 employees), 75 more Yukon residents worked in a different province or territory in 2018.
- A total of 18,890 Yukon residents received all employment earnings from Yukon in 2018. This was an increase of 385, or 2.1%, compared to 2017 when 18,505 Yukon residents received all employment income from Yukon.
- In 2018, 1,860 male employees (68.8%) and 845 female employees (31.2%) made up the total of 2,710 employees who worked in Yukon, but reported residency elsewhere in Canada. Of the 1,590 Yukon residents who received all or part of their employment income from outside of Yukon, 905 were males (56.9%) and 685 (43.1%) were female.

- Of all other provinces or territories over the 10-year period from 2009 to 2018, residents of British Columbia comprised the highest number of non-resident employees working in Yukon, ranging from a low of 980 employees in 2017 to a high of 1.630 employees in 2011.
- In 2018, residents of British Columbia working in Yukon (1,090), made up 40.2% of the total number of non-Yukon resident employees in Yukon; followed by residents of Alberta (580 employees, or 21.4%).
- British Columbia was the consistent destination for Yukon residents who had employment income from work outside of Yukon over the past ten years, ranging from a low of 590 employees in 2015 to a high of 745 employees in 2018.
- In 2018, 46.9% (745 employees) of the Yukon residents with employment income from elsewhere, worked in British Columbia, followed by Alberta (18.2%, 290 employees) and Ontario (13.8%, 220 employees).

Net Inter-jurisdictional Employees,
(Incoming to Yukon less Outgoing from Yukon),
Selected Provinces/Territories,
2009 to 2018

When considering net inter-jurisdictional employee movement (the difference between incoming non-resident employees in Yukon and outgoing Yukon residents who worked elsewhere), British Columbia residents working in Yukon comprised the highest net number of inter-jurisdictional employees to Yukon over the last ten years. Conversely, over the same period, the Northwest Territories had been the jurisdiction that received the highest net number of inter-jurisdictional employees from Yukon.

- In 2018, non-resident employees' earnings in Yukon totalled $92.7 million. This accounts for 61.8% of their employment earnings (inside and outside of Yukon), and represents 7.9% of the total employment earnings in Yukon ($1.2 billion) in 2018.
- Earnings of non-resident employees in Yukon, ranged from a low of $49.2 million in 2009 to a high of $116.2 million in 2012, a difference of $67.0 million.
- Over the ten years from 2009 to 2018, on average, 7.9% of the total employment earnings in Yukon was received by nonresidents, and ranged from a low of 5.4% in 2009 to a high of 10.6% in 2012.
- Of the total employment earnings (inside and outside of Yukon) of incoming interjurisdictional employees over the past ten years, an average of 66.3% was earned in Yukon.
- In 2018, outgoing Yukon resident employees earned $40.2 million in employment income from outside of Yukon in addition to $33.2 million from inside Yukon.
- Yukon resident employees' earnings from outside of Yukon in 2018 ($40.2 million) represented 54.7% of their total employment income in 2018 ($73.4 million). This ratio was the lowest in the last 10 years, with a high of 62.1% in 2015.
- From 2009 to 2018, total employment earnings of Yukon residents who only worked in Yukon, ranged from a low of $843.0 million in 2009 to a high of $1.1 billion in 2018.
- Over the ten years from 2009 to 2018, the per-capita employment earnings of Yukon residents who worked only in Yukon, has remained relatively flat with an annual average growth rate of 0.6%.

• In 2018, non-residents' earnings in Yukon were $52.6 million higher than Yukon residents' earnings outside of Yukon. This difference was mainly attributable to the combined earnings in the Mining and quarrying (excluding oil and gas) and the Support activities for mining industries in Yukon which was $23.6 million higher for non-residents than that of Yukon residents' earnings from outside in the same industries.
